1 Quick Summary

An adverb is a word that describes or modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb. It tells us more about how, when, where, or to what extent something happens.

Examples:

He runs
quickly.

She is very tall.

She sings
softly.

2 Memory Trick

Adverbs tell us HOW, WHEN, or WHERE an action happens — they add detail to the story!

Think: Adverbs give us the extra information!

HOW?
(manner)

quickly

WHEN?
(time)

yesterday

WHERE?

here

3 Types of Adverbs with Examples

Adverbs can tell us how, when, where, and to what extent. Here are some common types:

Adverbs of Manner (How an action happens)

glowly
He runs
quickly.

slowly
The turtle moves slowly.

carefully
She builds
the tower carefully.

Adverbs of Time (When an action happens)

yesterday
We visited the zoo
yesterday.

soon
They will arrive
soon.

later
I will call you
later.

Adverbs of Place (Where an action happens)

here
The cat is here.

there
Let's meet
there.

everywhere
You can see trees
everywhere.

Adverbs of Degree (To what extent)

very
She is a very kind girl.

quite
The movie was quite interesting.

The bag is too heavy.

4 Why It Matters

- ✓ Adverbs make our sentences more clear and precise.
- ✓ They add interesting details to actions, people, and ideas.
- ✓ They help us express time, place, manner, and degree.
- ✓ They make our speaking and writing more vivid and natural.

Adverbs bring life and detail to our words. They help us say more and make our sentences more exciting! ♥

How Adverbs Answer Questions

Adverbs help us answer important questions like:
How? When? Where?

Time & Place Adverbs

Adverbs = More Details!

1 Adverbs of Manner (-ly words)

Adverbs of manner tell us how something happens. Most often, they end in -ly.

Examples:

quickly

He runs quickly.

quietly

She talks quietly.

happily

She feels happily.

2 Adverbs of Time and Place

Adverbs of time tell us when something happens. Adverbs of place tell us where something happens.

Time Adverbs (when?)

now (right now)

later (afterwards)

yesterday (the day before)

soon (in a short time)

Place Adverbs (where?)

here (in this place)

there (in that place)

inside (within)

outside (not inside)

3 Real-Life Examples

Adverbs make our sentences more interesting, clear, and descriptive.

The children played happily outside.

Manner (how?)

We will meet tomorrow.

Time (when?)

The cat is hiding inside the box.

Place (where?)

She reads quietly in the library.

Manner (how?)

4 Common Mistakes

Don't confuse adjectives and adverbs!

Adjectives describe nouns (people, places, things). Adverbs describe verbs (actions), adjectives, or other adverbs.

Wrong:

He runs quick.

(X adjective used instead of adverb)

Correct:

He runs quickly.

(✓ adverb correctly used)

Wrong:

She is a careful driver.

(X adjective instead of adverb)

Correct:

She drives carefully.

(✓ adverb correctly used)
